dear all:

1) the results of the vote below have been 100% positive.

2) tor helleseth has asked frank kschischang to serve as keynote speaker at WCC2013 in bergen. he will deliver his note at the COST part of the workshop, and i assume you all agree that IC1104 will cover his expenses for this portion of the workshop.

3) the deadline for WCC2013 registration (earlybird) is february 18th, the deadline for inexpensive accommodation is today 15th. see the workshop's web page for details and book your accommodation for workshop and/or MC meeting as soon as possible.

4) i will inform the 19 workshop attendees enjoying COST support by a separate message, but will be grateful if you can assist me in spreading this message to your colleagues wherever this applies.

thanks for your co-operation, and see you soon in bergen.
